

USKU

West of the Pauwasi Phylum only small isolated languages are found till one reaches the Nawa River. They are Molof (200 speakers), Usku (20 speakers) and Tofamna (number of speakers unknown). ...

- Voorhoeve 1971:77.

Usku, spoken by a small group of people living south of the Pauwasi River to the west of Dubu ...

- Voorhoeve 1975b:423.

20 [speakers]

Village: Usku.

- Voorhoeve 1975f:45.

*

The Usku language is spoken by the 20 inhabitants of a village located south of the Pauwasi River, to the west of the Pauwasi Stock ... in north-eastern Irian Jaya ...

- Wurm 1982:195.

*

Usku

POP: 20

LOC: South of Jayapura just south of Pauwasi River

...

VILLAGE(S):

Usku

- Silzer & Heikkinen 1984:46.

150

LOC: South of Jayapura just south of Pauwasi River

- Silzer & Clouse 1991:82.

*

Usku: 20 speakers reported in 1975, south of Jayapura, Irian Jaya, Indonesia.

- Comrie 1992ss:180.

*

Usku village, south of Jayapura, just south of Pauwasi. ... Not closely related to any other language. ...

- Grimes 1992:583.

USKU ... 150 (1991 SIL). Usku village, south of Jayapura, just south of Pauwasi. ... Not closely related to any other language. ...

- Grimes 1996.

USKU ... 150 (1991 SIL). Usku village, south of Jayapura, just south of Pauwasi. Linguistic affiliation: Trans-New Guinea, Usku. Not closely related to any other language.

- Grimes 2000.

* * *

USKU	Galis 1960, Smits & Voorhoeve 1994
USKU	20 ISO (Wurm & Hattori 1981, Wurm 1982, Silzer &
USKU	150 ISO (Silzer & Clouse
USKU	20 (1975) Comrie 1992ss
Jikri -- USKU	Smits & Voorhoeve 1994
Usku -- USKU	Voorhoeve 1975; Silzer & Heikkinen 1984; Grimes 1992, 1996, 2000
	* * * * *